UNITED STATES ARMY COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS

Before
FLOR, POND, and STEELE
Appellate Military Judges

UNITED STATES, Appellee
v.
Specialist CARLOS I. MORALES-DENEGRI
United States Army, Appellant

ARMY 20250063

ORDER

WHEREAS:

Appellant's case is pending review by this Court pursuant to Article 66, Uniform Code of Military Justice, 10 U.S.C. § 866.

Prosecution Exhibits 27, 28, and 33, all admitted during appellant's trial, were not included in appellant's record of trial. Because of these omissions, appellant asserts the record of trial is substantially incomplete. The missing exhibits are purported to contain Child Sexual Abuse Material and, the government asserts, are located at an Army Consolidated Evidence Long Term Storage facility.

Separately, Prosecution Exhibit 26, containing similar explicit material, is attached to the record of trial and is not currently sealed.

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED:

Prosecution Exhibits 26, 27, 28, and 33 are hereby ordered sealed. Appellate government counsel shall obtain the missing prosecution exhibits referenced above and file a motion to supplement the record with this court no later than two weeks from the receipt of this order.

DATE: 29 May 2026
