DECISION
-----

Per Curiam:

On consideration of the entire record, including consideration of the issues personally specified by the appellant, we hold the findings of guilty and the sentence, as entered in the Judgment, correct in law and fact. and our superior court’s guidance in United States v. Ginn, 47 M.J. 236 (C.A.A.F. 1997), we find ourselves capable of resolving appellant’s claim without ordering a post-trial evidentiary hearing.

<sup>2</sup> Block 32 of the Statement of Trial Results, whether appellant had “been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence (18 U.S.C. § 922(g)(9))” is incorrectly marked “Yes.” We lack the authority to modify this error, though we note it for the record. United States v. Williams, 85 M.J. 121, 127 (C.A.A.F. 2024).

<sup>3</sup> The Judgment of the Court is corrected to reflect “31 July 2023” as the “Date Judgment [was] Entered.”
