

THE ARMY LAWYER

Headquarters, Department of the Army

Department of the Army Pamphlet 27-50-445

June 2010

INTERNATIONAL AND OPERATIONAL LAW EDITION

Foreword

Lieutenant Colonel Jeff A. Bovarnick

Articles

Detainee Review Boards in Afghanistan: From Strategic Liability to Legitimacy

Lieutenant Colonel Jeff A. Bovarnick

Teaching a Law of War Seminar Class

Major J. Jeremy Marsh, USAF

Human Rights: Time for Greater Judge Advocate Understanding

Captain Brian J. Bill, USN

Doctrine Developments on Stability Operations and the Rule of Law

Lieutenant Colonel J. Porter Harlow, USMC

Two Hats Are Better Than One: The Dual-Status Commander in Domestic Operations

Colonel John T. Gereski & Lieutenant Colonel Christopher R. Brown

The “Incendiary” Effect of White Phosphorous in Counterinsurgency Operations

Major Shane R. Reeves

The Law and Policy Implications of “Baited Ambushes” Utilizing Enemy Dead and Wounded

Lieutenant Colonel Chris Jenks

Reporting and Investigation of Possible, Suspected, or Alleged Violations of the Law of War

Dick Jackson

The Capture Versus Kill Debate: Is the Principle of Humanity Now Part of the Targeting Analysis When Attacking Civilians Who Are Directly Participating in Hostilities?

Major Richard S. Taylor

Conflict Classification and Detainee Treatment in the War Against al Qaeda

Ensign Scott L. Glabe, USNR

CLE News

Current Materials of Interest