Prospective authors should search recent issues of The Army Lawyer to see if their topics have been covered recently.

Authors should revise their own writing before submitting it for publication, to ensure both accuracy and readability. The style guidance in paragraph 1-36 of Army Regulation 25-50, Preparing and Managing Correspondence, is extremely helpful. Good writing for The Army Lawyer is concise, organized, and right to the point. It favors short sentences over long and active voice over passive. The proper length of an article for The Army Lawyer is "long enough to get the information across to the reader, and not one page longer."

Other useful guidance may be found in Strunk and White, The Elements of Style, and the Texas Law Review, Manual on Usage & Style. Authors should follow The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (20th ed. 2015) and the Military Citation Guide (TJAGLCS, 20th ed. 2015). No compensation can be paid for articles.

The Army Lawyer may make necessary revisions or deletions without prior permission of the author. An author is responsible for the accuracy of the author's work, including citations and footnotes.
