

AILA Military Assistance Program (MAP) Application for Assistance

Thank you for contacting AILA MAP, a program designed to provide expert immigration law assistance to US military personnel and their family members. AILA MAP is a new collaborative effort between the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) and the United States military Legal Assistance Judge Advocate General Corps. Please answer the following questions as best you can, and check all categories in which you need assistance. Please complete and send this document via email to probono@aila.org.

Yes, I am a US military member, or US military family member, and I need assistance with a US immigration law problem.

Name: _____

Address (incl. city, state, zip): _____

Phone: _____

Fax: _____

E-mail: _____

Branch of Service: _____

I prefer to be contacted by (check all that apply): phone e-mail

1. Have you previously spoken to any attorneys or other legal service providers about this problem?

2. If yes, please provide the name of the person(s) you contacted and any contact information for them:

3. Have you spoken with your local JAG office concerning this issue? If so, what was the result?

4. What immigration-related applications have you filed with the United States government?
Where did you file them?

5. Have you moved since filing your applications?

6. What was the last correspondence that you received from any government agency about this problem? When did you receive it?

7. Have you contacted the USCIS Military Helpline for assistance? If so, what was the result?

8. What is your current status in the United States? What is the status of your family members?

9. Please provide a brief description of the problem:

10. Please provide any other information that you think might be relevant to your immigration problem: