

Major (MAJ) Heather Tregle (US Army), currently serves as the Chief, Complex Litigation, Trial Counsel Assistance Program, United States Army Legal Services Agency.

She graduated from Lindenwood University with a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice. She received her Juris Doctor from the University of Laverne College of Law, a Master of Laws from the Judge Advocate's Legal Center and School, and a Master of Arts in Defense and Strategic Studies from the United States Naval War College.

MAJ Tregle most recently served as a Military Professor at the Stockton Center for International Law at the U.S. Naval War College. Her previous assignments include: Primary Legal Advisor, Joint Operations Command—Iraq, Baghdad, Iraq; Brigade Judge Advocate, 1st Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division (AASLT); Branch Chief, Defense Appellate Division; Defense Appellate Counsel, Defense Appellate Division; Chief, Administrative Law, 25th Infantry Division and United States Army Hawaii; Senior Trial Counsel, 25th Infantry Division; Trial Counsel & Operational Law Attorney, Task Force Wings, Kandahar, Afghanistan; Trial Counsel, 25th Combat Aviation Brigade; Chief of Claims, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri; Trial Counsel, 1st Engineer Brigade, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri; Legal Assistance Attorney, Fort Leonard Wood.

MAJ Tregle is a member of the California State Bar. She is married to another Judge Advocate, MAJ Michael Tregle; they have two children.