

Announcement of Death

Sergeant Debra Dyson, Paralegal NCO, Headquarters, 4th Brigade Special Troops Battalion, 4th Brigade Combat Team, 1st Armored Division, Fort Bliss, Texas.

SGT Dyson died unexpectedly on 1 February 2012. She was 27 years old.

SGT Dyson was born in Heidelberg, Germany. In 2005, she enlisted in the Army as a 91D (Operating Room Technician); and after a break in service, reentered the Army in January 2008 as a 27D. Upon graduating from 27D Advanced Individual Training, SGT Dyson reported to Fort Gordon, Georgia in March 2008. During 2009-2010, she deployed to Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and in May 2010, reported to the 1st Armored Division, Fort Bliss, Texas. SGT Dyson was a 2010 graduate of the Warrior Leadership Course.

SGT Dyson will be missed by many. She is survived by her husband, Specialist Sherrod Dyson, 31st Combat Support Hospital, Fort Bliss, Texas; her son, Daimion Dyson; her stepmother, Pok Cha Mattison; her sister, Chastity Grant; and her nephew, Jontae Grant.

A memorial service was scheduled for 0900 on 15 February 2012 at Center Chapel Two, 1542 Sheridan Street, Fort Bliss, Texas.

Please keep the Dyson family in your thoughts and prayers at this most difficult of times.

DANA K. CHIPMAN
LTG, USA
The Judge Advocate General