

Acting Commander, United States
Army Legal Services Agency and
Chief Judge, U.S. Army Court of Criminal Appeals
Brigadier General
Gerald R. Krimbill

BG Gerald R. Krimbill earned his Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from the University of Notre Dame in 1988, and his law degree from the William Mitchell College of Law in 1991. His military education includes a Masters in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College, U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and the Judge Advocate Officer Basic and Advanced Courses.

Following his graduation from law school, BG Krimbill was commissioned in the JAG Corps and served approximately five years on Active Duty, first at the Aviation and Troop Command as a General Law and Procurement Advisor, and later at Fort Sam Houston, where he served as a Contract Law Advisor. Prior to assuming his current position, his previous assignments include: Chief Judge (Individual Mobilization Augmentee), U.S. Army Court of Criminal Appeals; Deputy Director, Rule of Law, Kabul, Afghanistan; Deputy Commanding Officer (West), U.S. Army Reserve Legal Command; Commander, 1st Legal Operations Detachment; Commander 117th Legal Operations Detachment; Deputy Commander, 22d Legal Support Organization; Acting Staff Judge Advocate, U.S. Army Medical Command; Instructor, U.S. Army Command and General Staff Officer's Course; Acting Staff Judge Advocate, Fort Sam Houston, and 1st Legal Support Organization. His military awards include the Joint Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with 3 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal and the Afghanistan Campaign Medal with Campaign Star.

In his civilian capacity, BG Krimbill is employed as a Department of the Army Civilian Contract Attorney for the U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting Command. He previously served as a Contract Attorney for the U.S. Army Medical Command, the Labor Attorney for U.S. Army South, and as the Chief, Administrative/Civil Law Division at Fort Sam Houston. He is a member of the Minnesota Bar.

BG Krimbill and his wife, Elisabeth, have two sons and one daughter.