A Message from The Judge Advocate General

Announcement of Brigadier General Patrick J. Reinert for Promotion to Major General

7 August 2015

I am pleased to inform you that, pursuant to nomination by the President of the United States of America, the Senate has confirmed Brigadier General Patrick J. Reinert, United States Army Reserve, for promotion to the rank of Major General and assignment as Commanding General (Troop Program Unit), 88th Regional Support Command, Fort McCoy, Wisconsin.

Over his 32 years of commissioned service in the USAR, RA, and ARNG components, Major General Reinert has consistently distinguished himself as an exceptionally talented and broadly skilled officer and attorney. His leadership across all three components of our Army JAG Corps has been and continues to be the model of Character, Competence, and Commitment. His notable professional accomplishments include tours as both the Chief of Administrative Law and Chief of Criminal Law at the United States Army Aviation Center; the Staff Judge Advocate for the 372d Engineer Group; Deputy Staff Judge Advocate for the 19th Theater Army Area Command (CONUS Augmentation); Deputy Commander for the 649th Area Support Group (CONUS Augmentation), Chief, Administrative Law, 3d Corps Support Command (CONUS Augmentation); Senior Military Judge, 150th Judge Advocate General Detachment; Military Judge, USALSA; Commander, United States Army Reserve Legal Command; Chief Judge (IMA), United States Legal Services Agency; and Commander, United States Army Reserve Legal Command. His operational experience includes combat tours as Commander, NATO Rule of Law Field Support Mission and Rule of Law Field Force, Afghanistan; Deputy Commanding General and Commanding General Task Force 435, Afghanistan.

Major General Tom Ayres joins me in the pleasure of announcing Major General Reinert's selection for promotion. We look forward to continue to work with him as a senior commander.

Please congratulate Pat, his wife Marla and his family as they continue to serve our Army and the Nation.
