A Message from The Judge Advocate General

Announcement of Assignment for BG Marilyn S. Chiafullo as Chief Judge (Individual Mobilization Augmentee), U.S. Army Court of Criminal Appeals

3 January 2017

I am pleased to announce Brigadier General Marilyn Chiafullo has been assigned as the Chief Judge (Individual Mobilization Augmentee), U.S. Army Court of Criminal Appeals. She succeeds Brigadier General Ural D. Glanville who was recently announced as the Assistant Judge Advocate General, for Military Law and Operations (Individual Mobilized Augmentee).

Marilyn most recently served as the Assistant Judge Advocate General, for Military Law and Operations (Individual Mobilized Augmentee). BG Chiafullo has served as: the Chief of Staff, United States Army Reserve Legal Command; Chief of Reserve Component Management in the Personnel, Plans, and Training Office, Office of the Judge Advocate General; Staff Judge Advocate of Division West, First Army; Senior Service College Fellowship in International Security Studies at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, Tufts University and in many other notable assignments. General Chiafullo's temperament and legal expertise make her the perfect selection for this position.

Please join me and Major General Thomas Ayres in congratulating Marilyn as she continues to serve our Corps, Army, and Nation, representing the Gold Standard.

Army Strong!
